The task of the company is to produce and market special fertilizer products from previous development efforts.

A portion of the products can be used primarily in foliar application of fertilizers, in order to prevent and cure microelement deficiency diseases occurring in plants, but they also include compositions applicable in production technologies based on nutrient solutions, in the field of intensive cultivation methods for vegetables, fruits and decoration plants and for top-dressing.

More informations on the company's homepage.